(Department of Company Law Administration)RESOLUTIONNew Delhi, the 14th April 1960*

No. 11/9/59-Inst.—The question of organising and developing the profession of Company Secretaries on healthy lines has been under the consideration of the Government of India for some time. Unlike the English Companies Act, the Indian Companies Act, 1956 does not enjoin the compulsory employment of qualified Secretaries by Companies. The need for having professionally trained personnel to shoulder this responsibility is, however, increasingly recognised both in the Public and the Private Sectors. The Government consider that time is not yet ripe for establishing a Statutory Institute of Company Secretaries similar to the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India or the Institute of Cost and Works Accountants of India now functioning in the country. In order to help the Government in standardizing the basic qualifications needed for manning the posts of Company Secretaries and to hold the qualifying examinations the Government of India have now decided to set up an Advisory Board on a non-statutory basis.

2. The Board will be constituted as follows:—

Chairman

Shri D. L. Mazumdar, M.A. (Cantab), I.C.S., Secretary to the Government of India, Ministry of Commerce and Industry, Department of Company Law Administration.
